

Join the Director's Circle

As a member of the Director's Circle you will have an opportunity to develop a rich connection with the Institute for Molecular Bioscience, as you join our dedicated researchers on their quest to find the next cure.

As our philanthropic partner, you help create lasting global change.

The Director's Circle is a community of people, like you, who help advance research impact through philanthropy. Their annual donation of $1000 or more, supports passionate researchers at UQ's Institute for Molecular Bioscience who are driven to solving the problems of today.

"We do not have the capacity to produce enough of the drug needed to conduct the next clinical trial in our own labs. We need donations and support to help us engage a company to make a quantity large enough for us to run the next stage of trials."

Professor Glenn King, IMB
